

Funeral Director and Embalmer

Serenity Funeral Service - Edmonton, AB

Who is Serenity Funeral Service?

A community-owned, not-for-profit funeral service provider,

Serenity Funeral Service is community owned – no one individual or entity profits from the operation of the funeral home. Our cooperative, The Serenity Family Service Society, is comprised of numerous churches of varying denominations who elect an executive board to determine the direction and monitor the operation of Serenity Funeral Service.

Serenity has and will always endeavor to meet the needs of the families we serve by maintaining the highest ethical standards while being sensitive to the changing needs of our communities. We strive to ensure that all families are treated with the utmost fairness, dignity and respect, and we are also committed to working within the financial means of all families.

If you would like to be part of our unique team, you must be able to work in a team environment and be committed to serving families with compassion and professionalism. You must have strong time management and organization skills, and thrive in a fast-paced environment, and have strong written and oral communication skills.

Serenity offers a competitive salary and health benefits.

Having an embalming license is considered an asset, but not a necessity. Newly licensed applicants and students will be considered.
